Terms, conditions & other information:

- This is a statement of your account according to our records. If it is not in accordance with yours, please contact us immediately. Regardless, we ask that you notify us of any discrepancies, in writing, within 45 days of the date on this statement. Statements will be considered accurate and complete if not objected to by such date. We reserve the right to adjust this statement for errors and omissions.
- The prices shown on this statement, used for the purpose of displaying market values, while obtained from sources believed to be reliable, cannot be guaranteed as to their accuracy. In any event, market values are shown as "estimated". If "N/A" appears in connection with any specific security, either there is no price or we were unable to obtain a reliable one.
- We anticipate prompt settlement of cash balances due to us.
- Credit balances are payable on request, upon receipt by us of securities in "good delivery" form that may be owed by you.
- Any free credit balances represent funds payable on demand, which although properly recorded in our books, are not segregated and may be used in the conduct of our business.
- Please refer to your account number on all correspondence.
- A statement of financial condition and a list of shareholders, directors and senior officers of our firm are available on request.
- Our clients in British Columbia are entitled to certain information about us, including information about commissions and fees, and about any administrative proceedings that may relate to the firm or our staff. If you have any questions, please contact your investment advisor, the firm's Chief Financial Officer, or the firm's Chief Operating Officer.
- NATIONAL POLICY NO. 41 was formulated by securities regulators and issuing companies to ensure that non-registered holders have the same access to corporate information and voting rights as registered holders. If you currently own shares, held at Haywood Securities Inc. that are not registered in your name, then you will not receive any corporate information from the issuing company because your name will not appear on the shareholders list. However, as a shareholder you are still entitled to receive such information as notices of meetings, annual reports, proxies, etc. If you wish to receive this information, please contact our office or your investment advisor, ask for "FORM B" and "FORM C", complete "FORM C" and return it to our office.
- Customers' accounts are protected by the Canadian Investor Protection Fund within specified limits. A brochure describing the nature and limits of coverage is available upon request.
- Securities transactions, as shown on this statement are disclosed to Revenue Canada Taxation on a yearly basis. The income or capital gain from these transactions must be reported on your annual income tax return. Please keep this statement for income tax purposes, as no other form will be provided in respect of these transactions.

- This is a statement of your account according to our records. If it is not in accordance with yours, please contact us immediately. Regardless, we ask that you notify us of any discrepancies, in writing, within 45 days of the date on this statement. Statements will be considered accurate and complete if not objected to by such date. We reserve the right to adjust this statement for errors and omissions.
- The prices shown on this statement, used for the purpose of displaying market values, while obtained from sources believed to be reliable, cannot be guaranteed as to their accuracy. In any event, market values are shown as "estimated". If "N/A" appears in connection with any specific security, either there is no price or we were unable to obtain a reliable one.
- We anticipate prompt settlement of cash balances due to us.
- Credit balances are payable on request, upon receipt by us of securities in "good delivery" form that may be owed by you.
- Any free credit balances, with the exception of balances held for registered plans, represent funds payable on demand, which although properly recorded in our books, are not segregated and may be used in the conduct of our business.
- Please refer to your account number on all correspondence.
- A statement of financial condition and a list of shareholders, directors and senior officers of our firm are available on request.
- Our clients in British Columbia are entitled to certain information about us, including information about commissions and fees, and about any administrative proceedings that may relate to the firm or our staff. If you have any questions, please contact your investment advisor, Charles Dunlap - Chief Financial Officer, or Robert Blanchard, Chief Operating Officer.
- NATIONAL POLICY NO. 41 was formulated by securities regulators and issuing companies to ensure that non-registered holders have the same access to corporate information and voting rights as registered holders. If you currently own shares, held at Haywood Securities Inc. that are not registered in your name, then you will not receive any corporate information from the issuing company because your name will not appear on the shareholders list. However, as a shareholder you are still entitled to receive such information as notices of meetings, annual reports, proxies, etc. If you wish to receive this information, please contact our office or your investment advisor, ask for "FORM B" and "FORM C", complete "FORM C" and return it to our office.

- NATIONAL POLICY NO. 41 was formulated by securities regulators and issuing companies to ensure that non-registered holders have the same access to corporate information and voting rights as registered holders. If you currently own shares, held at Haywood Securities Inc. that are not registered in your name, then you will not receive any corporate information from the issuing company because your name will not appear on the shareholders list. However, as a shareholder you are still entitled to receive such information as notices of meetings, annual reports, proxies, etc. If you wish to receive this information, please contact our office or your investment advisor, ask for "FORM B" and "FORM C", complete "FORM C" and return it to our office.
- Customers' accounts are protected by the Canadian Investor Protection Fund within specified limits. A brochure describing the nature and limits of coverage is available upon request.
- Securities transactions, as shown on this statement are disclosed to Revenue Canada Taxation on a yearly basis. The income or capital gain from these transactions must be reported on your annual income tax return. Please keep this statement for income tax purposes, as no other form will be provided in respect of these transactions.
- Current Price is reported consistent with the currency of your account i.e. a Canadian funds account will show all holdings as a Canadian value and, conversely, the price of all securities in a U.S. funds account will be U.S., regardless of the market on which the securities trade.
- The following abbreviated codes will be used to describe securities held in an account as applicable; NVS - Non-voting shares, SVS - Subordinated voting shares, RVS - Restricted voting shares, RS - Restricted shares.

Terms, conditions & other information:

- This is a statement of your account according to our records. If it is not in accordance with yours, please contact us immediately. Regardless, we ask that you notify us of any discrepancies, in writing, within 45 days of the date on this statement. Statements will be considered accurate and complete if not objected to by such date. We reserve the right to adjust this statement for errors and omissions.
- The prices shown on this statement, used for the purpose of displaying market values, while obtained from sources believed to be reliable, cannot be guaranteed as to their accuracy. In any event, market values are shown as "estimated". If "N/A" appears in connection with any specific security, either there is no price or we were unable to obtain a reliable one.
- We anticipate prompt settlement of cash balances due to us.
- Credit balances are payable on request, upon receipt by us of securities in "good delivery" form that may be owed by you.
- Any free credit balances, with the exception of balances held for registered plans, represent funds payable on demand, which although properly recorded in our books, are not segregated and may be used in the conduct of our business.
- Please refer to your account number on all correspondence.
- A statement of financial condition and a list of shareholders, directors and senior officers of our firm are available on request.
- Our clients in British Columbia are entitled to certain information about us, including information about commissions and fees, and about any administrative proceedings that may relate to the firm or our staff. If you have any questions, please contact your investment advisor, Charles Dunlap - Chief Financial Officer, or Robert Blanchard, Chief Operating Officer.

Terms, conditions & other information:

- This is a statement of your account according to our records. If it is not in accordance with yours, please contact us immediately. Regardless, we ask that you notify us of any discrepancies, in writing, within 45 days of the date on this statement. Statements will be considered accurate and complete if not objected to by such date. We reserve the right to adjust this statement for errors and omissions.
- The prices shown on this statement, used for the purpose of displaying market values, while obtained from sources believed to be reliable, cannot be guaranteed as to their accuracy. In any event, market values are shown as "estimated". If "N/A" appears in connection with any specific security, either there is no price or we were unable to obtain a reliable one.
- We anticipate prompt settlement of cash balances due to us.
- Credit balances are payable on request, upon receipt by us of securities in "good delivery" form that may be owed by you.
- Any free credit balances, with the exception of balances held for registered plans, represent funds payable on demand, which although properly recorded in our books, are not segregated and may be used in the conduct of our business.
- Please refer to your account number on all correspondence.
- A statement of financial condition and a list of shareholders, directors and senior officers of our firm are available on request.
- Our clients in British Columbia are entitled to certain information about us, including information about commissions and fees, and about any administrative proceedings that may relate to the firm or our staff. If you have any questions, please contact your investment advisor, Charles Dunlap - Chief Financial Officer, or Robert Blanchard, Chief Operating Officer.
- Customers' accounts are protected by the Canadian Investor Protection Fund within specified limits. A brochure describing the nature and limits of coverage is available upon request.
- Securities transactions, as shown on this statement are disclosed to Revenue Canada Taxation on a yearly basis. The income or capital gain from these transactions must be reported on your annual income tax return. Please keep this statement for income tax purposes, as no other form will be provided in respect of these transactions.
- Current Price is reported consistent with the currency of your account i.e. a Canadian funds account will show all holdings as a Canadian value and, conversely, the price of all securities in a U.S. funds account will be U.S., regardless of the market on which the securities trade.
- The following abbreviated codes will be used to describe securities held in an account as applicable; NVS - Non-voting shares, SVS - Subordinated voting shares, RVS - Restricted voting shares, RS - Restricted shares.
- LEVERAGE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT: Using borrowed money to finance the purchase of securities involves greater risk than a purchase using cash resources only. If you borrow money to purchase securities, your responsibility to repay the loan and pay interest as required by its terms remains the same even if the value of the securities purchased declines.
